The 2015 Racial and Gender Report Card: College Sport

by Richard Lapchick
with DaWon Baker
Published April 7, 2016

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Orlando, FL... April 7, 2016 – The 2015 College Sport Racial and Gender Report Card (CSRGRC) was issued today by The Institute for Diversity and Ethics in Sport (TIDES) at the University of Central Florida (UCF). The report showed the record of the National Collegiate Athletic Association and its member institutions for gender hiring practices, racial hiring practices and the combined grade.

College Sport received a B for racial hiring practices by earning 83.6 points, a slight decrease from 83.8 points in the 2014 CSRGRC. College Sport received a C+ for gender hiring practices by earning 78.8 points, up 78.3 from points in the 2014 CSRGRC. The combined grade for the 2015 CSRGRC was a B with 81.2 points, slightly up from an overall B with 81.1 points in 2014.

Richard Lapchick, the Director of TIDES and the primary author of the CSRGRC, said, “College Sport maintained its overall B grade as well as its B for racial hiring practices and its C+ for gender hiring practices. There was a small improvement in gender and a small decrease for race.

Among the good news was some improvement for people of color as head coaches in Division I football and men’s and women’s Division I basketball. The continuing bad news was that more than 60 percent of all women’s teams are still coached by men. College sport still had the lowest grade for racial hiring practices and is only better than the National Football League for gender hiring practices among all of the college and professional sports covered by the respective Racial and Gender Report Cards.” Lapchick noted, “Opportunities for coaches of color continued to be a significant area of concern in all divisions. For the 2015 season, 87.1 percent of Division I, 88.8 percent of Division II and 91.6 percent of Division III men’s coaches were white. On the women’s side, whites held 85.7 percent, 88.4 percent and 91.3 percent in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively.

African-Americans who were head men’s and women’s basketball coached increased slightly in 2015.

MAKING WAVES OF CHANGE

In men's Division I basketball, 22.3 percent of all head coaches were African-American, which was up 0.3 percentage points from the 22 percent reported in the 2013-2014 season. However, it is still down 2.9 percentage points from the all-time high of 25.2 percent reported in the 2005-2006 season. In all, 23.8 percent of the Division I men's basketball coaches were coaches of color the same as in 2014. This was still a major area of concern when reviewing the Racial and Gender Report Card.

For Division I women's basketball, African-American women head coaches held 11 percent of the positions in 2014-2015 and African-American men held 4.1 percent of the positions in 2014-2015 for a combined percentage of 15.1 percent, which was an increase from the 14.3 percent reported in 2013-2014. As in other sports, the 11 percent African-American women head coaches stood in stark contrast to the 47.3 percent of the African-American women student-athletes who played basketball.

Only 7.1 percent of Division I head baseball coaches were people of color, and African-Americans were so unrepresented as head coaches in Division III, that the percentage of women coaching men's teams was actually higher than the percentage of African-Americans coaching men's teams (5.2 percent vs. five percent)."

While the number of head football coaches of color at the FBS level increased from 14 in the 2014 report to 16 at the start of the 2015 season, nearly 88 percent were still white.

The 2013 report was the first to include a gender grade for all Division I head coaches for men's teams and Division I head men's basketball coaches category, in response.

While it has been common practice for men to coach women's teams, it is rare for a woman to coach a men's team. This was accounted for in the grades for coaching for the time in the CSGRC after feedback on our reports in 2013 from scholar and activist Molly Arenberg. Women held only 38.9 percent of the head coaching jobs of women's teams in Division I, 35.4 percent in Division II and 43.8 percent in Division III. Women held 48 percent, 49 percent, and 51.2 percent of assistant coaching positions of women's teams in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively.

Whites held the overwhelming percent of the decision-making athletics director positions during the 2014-2015 year at 87.5 percent, 91.2 percent, and 94.3 percent in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. Women made up only 8.9 percent of Division I athletics directors, a decrease from 9.6 in 2013-2014.

The 2015 report saw the first female FBS conference commissioner in history with the appointment of C-USA commissioner Judy MacLeod in October. While this was a great stride for gender hiring in this male-dominated position, all of the FBS conference commissioners remained white in 2015.

Every year, the NCAA releases a new NCAA Race and Gender Demographics of NCAA Member Conferences Personnel Report and NCAA Race and Gender Demographics of NCAA Member Institutions Athletic Personnel Report. These reports were used to examine the racial and gender demographics of NCAA head and assistant coaches, athletics directors, associate and assistant athletics directors, senior woman administrators, academic advisors, compliance coordinators and managers for business development, fundraising, facilities, marketing, ticket sales, media relations and an array of assistants and support staff.

The 2015 Report Card featured updated racial and gender personnel data at the NCAA headquarters as well as for university presidents, athletics directors, head football coaches, football coordinators and faculty athletics representatives at the 128 institutions in the Division I Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS). In addition, this year's report card updated the sections pertaining to conference commissioners and NCAA student-athletes throughout all athletic divisions. The data utilized to update the 2015 Report Card sections were collected from several sources, including the NCAA website's Race and Gender Demographics Search Database, the Division I Campus Leadership Study published by TIDES in November 2015 titled Regression throughout Collegiate Athletic Leadership: Assessing Diversity among Campus and Conference Leaders for Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) Schools in the 2015-16 Academic Year, self-reported demographic data on NCAA Headquarters personnel for the fiscal year 2014-2015, and information contained in previous studies by TIDES. In all cases regarding employment in college athletics, the data reported throughout the 2015 College Sport Racial and Gender Report Card excluded Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs).

The 2013 report was the first to include a gender grade for all Division I head coaches for men's teams and Division I head men's basketball coaches category in response to feedback on our reports.

Tables for the College Sport Racial and Gender Report Card are included in Appendix I.

Lapchick noted that, "There are far more career prospects in college sport than professional sport. There are more jobs. Thus it is even more important for us to create expanded opportunities in college sport for women and people of color. We need new ways to open the hiring process for women and people of color."

TIDES, at the University of Central Florida, publishes the Racial and Gender Report Card to not only indicate areas of improvement, stagnation and regression in the racial and gender composition of professional and college sports personnel but also to contribute to increasing gender and racial diversity in front office and college athletics department positions.

TIDES strives to emphasize the value of diversity within athletic departments when they choose their office leadership teams in their office environments. Initiatives such as diversity management training can help change attitudes and increase the applicant pool for open positions. While it is the choice of the institution regarding which applicant is the best fit for their department, TIDES intends to illustrate how important it is to have a diverse organization with different races and/or genders. This element of diversity can provide a different perspective and ultimately a competitive advantage in the executive offices and on the athletic fields of play.

The report was authored by TIDES Director Dr. Richard Lapchick with DaWon Baker. This CSRGRC is the final for 2015. The complete 2015 Racial and Gender Report Card will be published separately.

REPORT HIGHLIGHTS FOR 2015

University Leadership Positions at Football Bowl Subdivision Institutions

- The percentage of female presidents at the 128 FBS institutions was 12.5 percent, down from 15.1 percent in 2014.

- 89.9 percent (115) of FBS university presidents were white. There were six African-American presidents, four Asian presidents, and three Latino presidents. There were no Native-American university presidents.
- The number of athletics directors of color at FBS schools decreased from 21 in 2014 to 17 in 2015. There were still no women of color in this position.
- There were 112 (87.5 percent) white head football coaches to begin the 2015 season. The number of head football coaches of color at the FBS level increased from 14 in the 2014 report to 16 at the start of the 2015 season.
- Latino head football coaches remained the same at one (0.8 percent) from 2014. There were still two (1.6 percent) Asian/Pacific Islander head coaches. The percent of African-American head coaches increased to 10.2 percent in 2015, from 8.7 percent in 2014.

NCAA Headquarters

- At the NCAA headquarters, the percent of women remained the same at the senior level and increased slightly at the managing director/director level and professional administrator level.
- At the NCAA headquarters, the number of people of color and women in the positions of executive vice president, senior vice president, and vice president remained the same in 2015. African-Americans were the only people of color (four) to hold these positions in 2015.
- The percent of executives at the managing director/director positions who were people of color increased from 18.1 percent in 2014 to 18.8 percent in 2015. Women accounted for 44.7 percent of these positions in 2015 compared to 44.6 percent in 2014. African-Americans represented 16.5 percent in 2015, which was an increase of 0.8 percentage point from the 2014 totals. The number of Latinos and Asians remained the same in these positions with one each.
- At the Professional Administrator level, the percent of people of color decreased from 20.2 percent in 2014 to 19.2 percent in 2015. The percent of African-Americans decreased from 15.8 percent in 2014 to 14.2 percent in 2015. In 2015, the percent of Latino representation dropped from 2.7 percent in 2014 to 1.0 percent in 2015. Asian representation increased slightly from 2.7 percent in 2014 to 3 percent in 2015 and Latino representation decreased slightly from 1.4 percent to 1.0 percent. The percent of white administrators increased from 79.8 percent in 2014 to 80.8 percent, while the percentage of women in these roles increased slightly from 53.1 percent to 53.3 percent.

Conference Commissioners

- Nine (90.0 percent) of the ten Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS), formerly known as Division I-A, conference commissioners were white men. One (ten percent) of the FBS conference commissioners was a white woman. Judy MacLeod was named C-USA commissioner in October 2015, making her the first woman to lead an FBS conference. There has never been a person of color who held the commissioner position for an FBS conference.

- Looking at all Division I conferences, excluding Historically Black Conferences, 29 of 30 commissioners were white.

Student-Athletes

- During the 2015 season, 43.6 percent of all NCAA Division I, II, and III student-athletes combined were female and 56.4 percent were male.
- Of all student-athletes in Division I football at the FBS level during the 2015 year, 53.4 percent were African-Americans, 41.4 percent were white, 2.2 percent were Latinos, Asian/Pacific Islanders represented 2.4 percent, and 0.6 percent of male Division I football student-athletes were classified as "other."
- Of the total student-athletes in all of Division I football, 43.6 percent were African-Americans, 43.1 percent were white, Latinos were 2.8 percent, Asian/Pacific Islanders represented two percent and Native-Americans represented 0.4 percent. Student-athletes identified as two or more races or "other" totaled 7.5 percent.
- Of the total student-athletes in Division I men's basketball, white athletes accounted for 27 percent and African-Americans accounted for 55.6 percent.
- Of the total student-athletes in Division I baseball, white athletes decreased from 84.6 percent in 2013-2014 to 83.3 percent in 2014-2015. African-American athletes increased from 2.8 percent in 2013-2014 to 2.9 percent in 2014-2015. Latino athletes remained the same from 2013-2014 to 2014-2015, with 5.8 percent.
- Of the total student-athletes in Division I women's basketball, African-American athletes decreased from 47.7 percent in 2013-2014 to 47.3 percent in 2014-2015. White athletes decreased from 36.2 percent in 2013-2014 to 34.9 percent in 2014-2015.
- Of the total student-athletes in Division I softball, people of color increased 2.4 percentage points from 22.2 percent in 2013-2014, to 24.6 percent in 2014 - 2015.
- Of the total male student-athletes in Division I athletics, white males decreased 1.3 percentage points from 60.2 percent in 2013-2014 to 58.9 percent in 2014-2015, while African-American males increased 0.2 percentage points from 21.9 percent in 2013-2014 to 22.1 percent in 2014-2015.
- Of the total male student-athletes in Divisions I, II, and III in 2014-2015 combined, white males represented 65.8 percent, African-American males represented 17 percent, Latinos represented 5.4 percent, Asian/Pacific Islanders represented 1.8 percent, and Native Americans represented 0.4 percent. Student-athletes that identified as two or more races, "other," and non-resident aliens represented 9.7 percent.
- Of the total female student-athletes in Division I athletics, white females decreased 1.4 percentage points from 68.2 percent in 2013-2014 to 66.8 percent in 2014-2015, while African-American females increased 0.1 percentage point from 12.4 percent in 2013-2014 to 12.5 percent in 2014-2015.

- Of the total female student-athletes in Divisions I, II, and III in 2014-2015 combined, white females represented 73.2 percent, African-American females represented 9.1 percent, Latinas represented 4.9 percent, Asians/Pacific Island females represented 2.4 percent, and Native American females represented 0.4 percent. Female student-athletes identified as two or more races, “other,” and non-resident aliens represented ten percent.

Coaching

- In 2014-2015, whites dominated the head coaching ranks on men’s teams holding 87.1 percent, 88.8 percent, and 91.6 percent of all head coaching positions in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively, compared to 2013-2014 when whites held 86.8 percent, 88.9 percent, and 91.3 percent in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively.
- In 2014-2015, African-Americans held 7.9 percent, 4.2 percent, and 5 percent of the men’s head coaching positions in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively, compared to 2013-2014 when African-Americans held 8.2 percent, 4.2 percent, and 4.8 percent in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively.
- In 2014-2015, whites held 85.7 percent, 88.4 percent, and 91.3 percent of the women’s head coaching positions in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively, compared to 2013-2014 when whites held 85.2 percent, 88.5 percent, and 91.3 percent in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively.
- In 2014-2015, African-Americans held 7.3 percent, 4 percent, and 4.4 percent of the women’s head coaching positions in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively, compared to 2013-2014 when African-Americans held 7.3 percent, 4.1 percent, and 4.2 percent in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively.
- African-Americans who were head men’s and women’s basketball coaches increased in 2015.
- In men’s Division I basketball, 22.3 percent of all head coaches were African-American, which was up 0.3 percentage points from the 22 percent reported in the 2013-2014 season, and down 2.9 percentage points from the all-time high of 25.2 percent reported in the 2005-2006 season. In all, 23.8 percent of the Division I men’s basketball coaches were coaches of color. This was still a major area of concern when reviewing the Racial and Gender Report Card.
- Only 7.1 percent of Division I head baseball coaches were people of color: 3.6 percent were Latino, 1.1 percent were African-American, 1.4 percent were Asian/ Pacific Islander, and 0.7 percent were classified as being “two or more” races.
- African-Americans were so unrepresented as head coaches in Division III that the percentage of women coaching men’s teams was actually higher than the percentage of African-Americans coaching men’s team (5.2 percent versus 5.0 percent).

- Forty-four years after the passage of Title IX, women still did not hold even close to the majority of coaching opportunities in women's sports. Women only held 38.9 percent of the head coaching jobs for women's sports in Division I, which was a 0.7 percentage point increase from 2013-2014. Women held 35.4 percent of the head coaching jobs for women's sports in Division II, which was a 0.6 percentage point increase from 2013-2014. Women held 43.8 percent of the head coaching jobs for women's sports in Division III, which was a 0.1 percentage point decrease from 2013-2014.
- Women head coaches in Division I women's basketball decreased slightly from 59.2 percent in 2013-2014 to 58.3 percent in 2014-2015. Women holding head coaching positions in cross country, indoor track and outdoor track at the Division I level decreased from 19.5 percent in 2013-2014 to 18.4 percent in 2014-2015. In all other women's sports at the Division I level, women held 44.6 percent of head coaching positions compared to the 55.4 percent held by men.
- For Division I women's basketball, African-American women head coaches held 11 percent of the positions in 2014-2015 and African-American men held 4.1 percent of the positions in 2014-2015 for a combined percentage of 15.1 percent, which was an increase from the 14.3 percent reported in 2013-2014. As in other sports, the 11 percent African-American women head coaches stood in stark contrast to the 47.3 percent of the African-American women student-athletes who played basketball.
- Of the total assistant coaching positions held on men's teams in Divisions I, II, and III during 2014-2015, white assistant coaches represented 73.6 percent, 75.5 percent, and 84.7 percent, respectively. The percentage of white assistant coaches decreased from last year in Divisions I, II and III. The percentages of white assistant coaches from the 2013-2014 season were 73.7 percent, 75.7 percent, and 85.9 percent for Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. Of the total assistant coaching positions held on men's teams in Divisions I, II, and III during 2014-2015, African-Americans represented 19.1 percent, 13.8 percent, and 8.8 percent respectively.
- Of the total assistant coaching positions held on women's teams in Divisions I, II, and III during 2014-2015, white assistant coaches represented 75.5 percent, 76.8 percent, and 86.4 percent respectively. The 2014-2015 percentages compare to 2013-2014 where white assistant coaches represented 76.1 percent, 77.1 percent, and 87.4 percent, respectively. Of the total assistant coaching positions held on women's teams during 2014-2015, African-Americans held 14.4 percent, 10.3 percent, and 6.8 percent for Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. The 2014-2015 percentages compare to 2013-2014 where African-American assistant coaches represented 14.1 percent, 9.8 percent, and 6.3 percent of the assistant coaching jobs on women's teams in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively.
- The percentage of women assistant coaches for women's teams increased slightly in Divisions I and II, but remained the same in Division III from the 2013-2014 year to the 2014-2015 year. As assistants in women's sports, women in the 2014-2015 year held 48 percent of the positions in Division I, 49 percent in Division II, and 51.2 percent in Division III. In 2013-2014 there were 47 percent in Division I, 48.5 percent in Division II, and 51.2 percent in Division III.

Athletics Directors

- Whites held the overwhelming percentage of athletics director positions during the 2014-2015 year at 87.5 percent, 91.2 percent, and 94.3 percent in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. These percentages decreased slightly from 2013-14, when these percentages were 87.7 percent, 91.5 percent, and 94.5 percent for Divisions I, II, and III, respectively.
- African-Americans held 8.6 percent, 4.1 percent, and 4.1 percent of the athletics director positions in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. Division I and Division II saw an increase while Division III saw a decrease as 8 percent, 3.4 percent and 4.2 percent of African-Americans held athletics director positions during the 2013-2014 year.
- Latinos accounted for 2.4 percent, 3 percent, and 0.4 percent of the athletics directors in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively, for the 2014-2015 year. Division I, Division II and Division III saw a slight decrease compared to the 2013-2014 results of 2.8 percent, 3.7 percent, and 0.7 percent, respectively.
- Asian/Pacific Islanders accounted for 0.9 percent, 1 percent, and 0.2 percent of the athletics directors at Divisions I, II, and III, respectively, which was the same as the 2013-2014 results. Native-Americans accounted for 0.3 percent of the athletics directors in Division I, zero percent in Division II and 0.2 percent in Division III.
- The percentage of female athletics directors at the Division I level decreased from 9.6 percent in 2013-2014 to 8.9 percent in 2014-2015. Women's representation increased in Division II and decreased in Division III where it went from 17.7 percent and 29.4 percent in the 2013-2014 results to 18.6 percent and 29 percent in 2014-2015, respectively.

College Associate, Assistant Athletics Directors, Senior Woman Administrators, Faculty Athletics Representatives, and Sports Information Directors

- At the associate athletics director position, whites comprised 87 percent, 90.1 percent, and 94.8 percent at Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. These percentages decreased in Division I, remained the same in Division II and increased in Division III from the 2013-2014 results when they were 87.2 percent for Division I, 90.1 percent in Division II, and 93.6 percent in Division III. African-Americans held 9 percent, 5.8 percent, and 4.1 percent of the associate athletics director positions at Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. Latinos held 1.8 percent, two percent, and 0.3 percent of the associate athletics director positions at Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. Asian/Pacific Islanders held 1 percent, 0.6 percent, and zero percent in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. Native-Americans held 0.2 percent of the associate athletics director position in Division I and had no representation in Divisions II and III.
- At the assistant athletics director position, whites comprised 86.7 percent, 86.4 percent, and 91.5 percent at Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. The percentages decreased in Division I, decreased in Division II and remained the same in Division III from the 2013-2014 results when they were 88.1

percent, 86.8 percent, and 91.5 percent for Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. African-Americans held 8.4 percent, 6.7 percent, and five percent of the assistant athletics director positions at Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. Latinos held 2.5 percent, 2.8 percent, and 1.6 percent of the assistant athletics director positions in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. Asian/Pacific Islanders held 1 percent, 2.4 percent, and 0.5 percent of the assistant athletics director positions in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. Native Americans held 0.1 percent of the assistant athletics director positions in Division I, 0.2 percent in Division II and 0.4 percent in Division III.

- The percentage of women who held associate athletics director positions was 28.3 percent in Division I, 39.2 percent in Division II, and 46.4 percent in Division III in 2014-2015, compared to 29, 40.7, and 47.6 percent in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively in 2013-2014.
- The percentage of women who held assistant athletics director positions was 31.1 percent in Division I, 33.5 percent in Division II, and 37.4 percent in Division III in 2013-2014, compared to 27.6, 34.9, and 36.5 percent in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively in 2013-2014.
- White women continued to dominate the senior woman administrator (SWA) position holding 83.1 percent, 86.8 percent, and 92.4 percent in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. African-American women represented 9.4 percent, 6.3 percent, and 4.3 percent of the SWA positions in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively.
- Whites continued to hold the vast majority of the faculty athletics representative (FAR) positions with 90.6 percent, 92.8 percent, and 94.8 percent in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. Women held 33.3 percent, 28.3 percent, and 33.7 percent of the FAR positions in 2014-2015.
- The sports information director (SID) position was overwhelmingly white with 94.9, 92.2, and 97.1 percent of the positions being held by whites in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. Women held 11.6, 8.5, and 13 percent of the SID positions in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively.

THE REPORT BY CATEGORY

University Leadership Positions at Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) Institutions

The key leadership positions at Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) schools and conferences remained overwhelmingly white and male while there were 16 head coaches of color in the 2015 college football season at the FBS level (formerly Division I-A), according to a study released in November 2015 by TIDES. This study, titled Small Progress throughout Collegiate Athletic Leadership: Assessing Diversity among Campus and Conference Leaders for Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) Schools in the 2015-16 Academic Year, reported on the racial and gender demographics and trends at the 128 FBS institutions. Highlights of this study concerning the leadership of university presidents, athletics directors, football coaching staff and faculty athletics representatives are included and analyzed within this section.

University Presidents at FBS Institutions

Analyzing the leadership at the top of the colleges and universities leading FBS institutions, the lack of diversity was evident. Among the 128 FBS Institutions, 115 (89.8 percent) presidents were white. There were 13 presidents of color and 16 women serving as president as of October 2015. The percentage of female presidents decreased by 2.6 percentage points from 2014, while the number of presidents of color decreased by 1.7 percentage points over the same time period.

- There were six (4.7 percent) African-Americans
 - George E. Ross, Central Michigan University
 - Bernadette Gray-Little, University of Kansas
 - Sidney McPhee, Middle Tennessee State University
 - Roderick McDavis, Ohio University
 - Michael Drake, The Ohio State University
 - Rodney Bennett, University of Southern Mississippi
- There were three (2.3 percent) Latinos
 - Joseph Castro, California State University, Fresno
 - Ricardo Romo, University of Texas, San Antonio

- Julio Frank, University of Miami
- There were four (3.1 percent) Asians
 - Satish Tripathi, University at Buffalo
 - Santa Jeremy Ono, University of Cincinnati
 - Renu Khator, University of Houston
 - Wallace Loh, University of Maryland, College Park
- There were 16 (12.5 percent) women (14 white, one African-American, one Asian)
 - Lt. General Michelle Johnson, U.S. Air Force Academy
 - Jean E. Bartels, Georgia Southern University
 - Sheri Everts, Appalachian State University
 - Ann Weaver Hart, University of Arizona
 - Mary Ellen Mazey, Bowling Green State University
 - Susan Herbst, University of Connecticut
 - Beverly J. Warren, Kent State University

Athletics Directors at FBS Institutions

As of October 2015, there were 12 African-American, three Latino, one Asian and one Native American athletics directors at FBS institutions. Of the 128 ADs who oversaw FBS football programs, there were 102 (79.7 percent) white males. There were no female African-American, Asian, Latina or Native American athletics directors at FBS schools. The men of color included the following:

- 12 (9.4 percent) African-Americans
 - Ray Anderson, Arizona State University
 - Michael Williams, University of California, Berkeley
 - Warde J. Manuel, University of Connecticut
 - Stan Wilcox, Florida State University
 - Kevin Anderson, University of Maryland, College Park
 - Sean Frazier, Northern Illinois University
 - Eugene Smith, The Ohio State University
 - Bernard Muir, Stanford University
 - Kevin Clark, Temple University

- Derrick Gragg, Tulsa University
- David Williams II, Vanderbilt University
- Craig Littlepage, University of Virginia
- Three (2.3 percent) Latinos
 - Daniel G. Guerrero, University of California, Los Angeles
 - Pete Garcia, Florida International University
 - Barry Alvarez, University of Wisconsin
- One (0.8 percent) Asian
 - Patrick Chun, Florida Atlantic University
- One (0.8) Native-American
 - Rick Dickson, Tulane University

There were nine white women (7.0 percent) who oversaw FBS football programs:

- Heather Lyke, Eastern Michigan University
- Tina Kunzer-Murphy, University of Nevada, Las Vegas
- Deborah Yow, North Carolina State University
- Sandy Barbour, Penn State University
- Lynn Hickey, University of Texas, San Antonio
- Julie Hermann, Rutgers University
- Kathy Beauregard, Western Michigan University
- Judy Rose, University of North Carolina, Charlotte
- Beth Goetz, University of Minnesota (Interim)

Christine A. Plonsky at the University of Texas at Austin heads the separate women's department and does not oversee football.

The level of diversity within the athletics director position at FBS schools decreased from the 2014 study, as 17 (13.3 percent) people of color held this position.

Head Football Coaches at FBS Institutions

As of October 2015, there were 128 head football coaches at FBS schools and of those, 112 (87.5 percent) were white males. There were 16 (12.5 percent) of 128 FBS head football coaches that were people of color, an increase from 14 in last year's study. The head football coaches of color include:

- 13 (10.2 percent) African-Americans
 - Dino Babers, Bowling Green University
 - Ruffin McNeill, East Carolina University
 - Paul Haynes, Kent State University
 - Darrell Hazell, Purdue University
 - Willie Taggart, University of South Florida
 - Charlie Strong, University of Texas
 - David Shaw, Stanford University
 - Kevin Sumlin, Texas A&M University
 - Curtis Johnson, Tulane University
 - Derek Mason, Vanderbilt University
 - Mike London, University of Virginia

- Mike Locksley, University of Maryland, College Park
- James Franklin, Penn State University
- One (0.8 percent) Latino
 - Tony Sanchez, University of Nevada, Las Vegas
- Two (1.6 percent) Asian/Pacific Islanders
 - Norm Chow, University of Hawaii
 - Ken Niumatalolo, U.S. Naval Academy

Faculty Athletics Representatives at FBS Institutions

The faculty athletics representative (FAR) is a representative of the university on issues regarding athletics. The FAR is usually appointed by the president and is not only involved with ensuring academic integrity of the athletics programs, but also maintaining the welfare of the student-athlete.

As of October 2015, there were 129 faculty athletics representatives in FBS schools. Ohio University, University of Illinois, University of Iowa, University of Minnesota, Purdue University and University of Wisconsin, Madison each had two FARs while Texas AM, Western Michigan, Miami (OH), Ohio State and Navy do not have one. As of the 2015 publication, 89.9 percent of faculty athletics representatives were white. There were 43 (33.3 percent) women holding a position as a FAR, which was the same from the previous year. There were 13 people of color holding the position and 43 women:

- Nine (seven percent) African-Americans
 - Charlene Alexander, Ball State University
 - Dawn Lewis, California State University, Fresno
 - BeEtta “Be” Stoney, Kansas State University
 - Marvin Dawkins, University of Miami
 - Tim Seibles, Old Dominion University
 - Michael Clement, University of Texas, Austin
 - Jeffrey Wilson, Arizona State University
 - Jeffrey Leak, University of North Carolina, Charlotte
 - Christopher Span, University of Illinois
- Two (1.6 percent) Latina
 - Josephine Potuto, University of Nebraska
 - Al Camarillo, Stanford University
- Two (1.6 percent) Asians
 - Manoj Chopra, University of Central Florida
 - Clare Pastore, University of Southern California
- No Native Americans

There were 38 white women (29.5 percent) and 43 total women (33.3 percent) serving as faculty athletics representatives in FBS schools.

Conference Commissioners

Nine (90.0 percent) of the FBS conference commissioners were white men. One (ten percent) of the FBS conference commissioners was a white woman. Judy MacLeod, was named C-USA commissioner in October 2015, making her the first woman to lead an FBS conference. The conference commissioner holds a powerful position and those that head FBS conferences are considered to be among the most powerful and influential people in college sport. There has never been a person of color who held the commissioner position for an FBS conference. .

*There were nine women commissioners in 2015, which increased from the eight who headed Division I conferences in 2014:

- Elizabeth DeBauche, Ohio Valley Conference
- Robin Harris, Ivy League
- Bernadette V. McGlade, Atlantic 10 Conference
- Noreen Morris, Northeast Conference
- Jennifer Heppel, Patriot League
- Lynn Holzman, West Coast Conference
- Amy Huchthausen, American East (Asian)
- Val Ackerman, Big East
- Judy MacLeod, Conference USA

This information was not included in the 2015 TIDES DI Leadership Report.

Looking at all Division I Conferences, excluding Historically Black Conferences, 29 out of 30 commissioners were white. Amy Huchthausen, of American East, was the only person of color who is a commissioner.

Student-athletes

There were several changes in data categorizations, made by both the NCAA and The Institute for Diversity and Ethics in Sport, that are essential to be aware of before highlighting statistical observations over the past three years compared to prior years:

Starting in 2012-2013, data included the status of “non-resident alien” to the NCAA Student-athlete Ethnicity Report detailing the resident alien status of the student-athletes separately from their race/ethnicity. The numbers corresponding with the status “Asian” and “Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander” were combined in this report under the category “Asian/Pacific Islander.” Please take note of this, as it is extremely important to recognize especially in the tables that detail the ethnicities of both head and assistant coaches. Some decreases in ethnic percentages from earlier years can be attributed to this change in methodology.

Each year, the Racial and Gender Report Card takes a look at three Division I sports and highlights trends for both male and female student-athletes. For the male student-athletes, the sports highlighted in the report are basketball, football, and baseball. Beginning in 2011, the three female sports reported for the Division I observations were basketball, outdoor track, and softball. These sports have strong participation levels and comparatively high media attention in relation to other female sports.

In Division I men's basketball, the percentage of African-Americans increased by 0.5 percentage points to 55.6 percent in 2014-2015. Latino representation increased 0.1 percentage points to 1.8 percent, Asian/Pacific Islander remained the same at 0.4 percent, and white participation decreased 1.8 percentage points to 27.0 percent. The category "two or more" showed an increase of one percentage point to 4.6 percent. The categories "non-resident alien" and "other" combined to make up 10.3 percent for the 2014-2015 season.

In Division I football at the FBS level, African-Americans accounted for 53.4 percent of football student-athletes while whites made up 41.4 percent, Latinos made up 2.2 percent, Asian/Pacific Islanders made up 2.4 percent, and those describing themselves as "other" made up 0.6 percent.

The breakdown for all Division I football student-athletes is as follows: whites decreased from 44.3 percent in 2013-2014 to 43.1 in 2014-2015 percent; African-Americans increased from 43.3 percent to 43.6 percent; Latinos increased from 2.5 percent to 2.8 percent; Asian/Pacific Islanders remained the same at two percent, and Native-Americans remained the same at 0.4 percent. Those describing themselves as "non-resident aliens" remained the same at 0.4 percent while "two or more races" and "other" saw an increase from 7.1 percent to 7.5 percent.

In baseball, white participation decreased from 84.6 percent in 2013-2014 to 83.3 percent in 2014-2015. African-American participation increased slightly from 2.8 percent to 2.9 percent. Latino participation remained the same at 5.8 percent.

In recent years, there has been a decline of white student-athletes. In 2015, white student-athletes made up 58.9 percent of student-athletes across all Division I sports, down from the 2008-2009 academic year when it was 66.7 percent.

In women's Division I basketball, the percentage represented by whites decreased from 36.2 percent in 2013-2014 to 34.9 percent in 2014-2015. African-American participation decreased from 47.7 percent in 2013-2014 to 47.3 percent in 2014-2015. Latina representation remained at 2.2 percent, Asian/Pacific Islanders remained at one percent, and Native Americans decreased from 0.6 percent to 0.4 percent.

In women's outdoor track, 59.2 percent of student-athletes were white in 2014-2015, decreasing 1.3 percentage points from 2013-2014. African-American participation increased from 23.2 percent to 23.6 percent. Latina representation decreased from 4.2 percent to 4.1 percent, Asian/Pacific Islanders decreased from 1.5 percent to 1.3 percent, and Native Americans decreased from 0.4 percent to 0.3 percent.

In softball, the percentage of white student-athletes decreased by 2.4 percentage points from 2013-2014, representing 75.4 percent of the total in 2014-2015. African-American participants increased by 0.3 percentage points from 2013-2014 and represented 3.9 percent of the total participants. Latina participants increased 1.2 percentage point from 2013-2014 and represented 9.4 percent of the total participants. Asian/Pacific Islander participants increased by 0.1 percentage point and represented 2.5 percent of the total participants. Native American participants remained the same at 0.8 percent of the total participants.

For the total amount of female student-athletes across all Division I sports in 2014-2015 The percentage of African-American participants increased by 0.1 percentage point, representing 12.5 percent of the total participants. The percentage of white female student-athletes in 2014-2015 totaled 66.8 percent of all women student-athletes, which was a decrease of 1.4 percentage points.

The percentage of white male student-athletes participating at the Divisions I, II, and III levels combined decreased from 67.3 percent in 2013-2014 to 65.8 percent in 2014-2015. During the 2013-2014 season, the percentage of African-American male student-athletes was 16.5 percent; 4.9 percent were Latinos, 1.8 percent were Asian/Pacific Islanders, 0.4 percent were Native Americans, 2.4 percent were males of two or more races, and 3.3 percent were non-resident aliens. During the 2014-2015 season, the percentage of African-American male student-athletes was 17 percent; 5.4 percent were Latinos, 1.8 percent were Asian/Pacific Islanders, 0.4 percent were Native American, 2.8 percent were males of two or more races, and 3.5 percent were Non-resident aliens.

In 2013-2014, the percentage of white female student-athletes in Divisions I, II, and III was 74.4 percent, while 8.9 percent were African-Americans, 4.5 percent were Latinas, 2.2 percent were Asian/Pacific Islanders, 0.5 percent were Native Americans, 2.6 percent classified as two or more races, and 3.3 percent were non-resident aliens. In 2014-2015, white female student-athletes represented 73.2 percent, 9.1 percent for African-Americans, 4.9 percent for Latinas, 2.4 percent for Asian/Pacific Islander, 0.4 percent for Native Americans, 3.2 percent for females of two or more races, and 3.5 percent were non-resident aliens.

During the 2013-2014 season, white male student-athletes comprised 60.2, 62.7, and 75.8 percent of all male student-athletes in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. In the most recent 2014-2015 figures, white male student-athletes comprised 58.9, 60.7, and 74.3 percent of all male student-athletes, respectively. During the 2013-2014 season, white female student-athletes comprised 68.2, 73.7, and 81.2 percent of all women participants in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. In the most recent 2014-2015 figures, white female student-athletes comprised 66.8, 71.8, and 80.6 percent of all women participants, respectively.

During the 2014-2015 season, African-American male student-athletes comprised 22.1 percent, 19.7 percent, and 11.2 percent of all male student-athletes in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. Latinos were 4.5 percent, 6.8 percent, and 5.2 percent, respectively. Asian/Pacific Islanders were 1.9 percent, 1.3 percent, and two percent, respectively. Native-Americans were 0.3 percent, 0.6 percent, and 0.3 percent, respectively. Male student-athletes of two or more races were 3.5 percent, 2.7 percent, and 2.3 percent, respectively. Non-resident aliens were 4.8 percent, 5.7 percent, and 1.2 percent of all male student-athletes, respectively.

During the 2014-2015 season, African-American female student-athletes comprised 12.5 percent, 9.1 percent, and 5.6 percent of all female student-athletes in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. Latinas were 4.5 percent, 6.8 percent, and 4.1 percent, respectively. Asian/Pacific Islanders comprised 2.3 percent, 1.8 percent, and 2.8 percent, respectively. Native-Americans were 0.4 percent, 0.7 percent, and 0.3 percent, respectively. Female student-athletes of two or more races were 4.1 percent, 3.1 percent, and 2.4 percent, respectively. Non-resident aliens were 5.9 percent, 4.3 percent, and 0.8 percent of all female student-athletes, respectively.

According to the NCAA, 43.6 percent of all NCAA Division I, II, and III student-athletes combined are female and 56.4 percent are male. In the case of women as student-athletes, 50 percent earned an A, 45 percent earned a B, and 40 percent earned a C.

All student-athlete data came from the Student-Athlete Data in the Race and Gender Demographics Search Database.

NCAA Headquarters

The data in this section on the NCAA headquarters was supplied by the NCAA for 2015 and was compared to the NCAA data from 2014.

At the NCAA headquarters, the number of people of color and women in the positions of executive vice president, senior vice president and vice president remained the same at four each in 2015. African-Americans were the only people of color to hold these positions in 2015. There continued to be no Latinos or Asians holding these positions. Whites held 76.5 percent of the positions in 2015, which was the same as 2014.

The percentage of executives at the managing director/director positions who were people of color increased from 18.1 percent in 2014 to 18.9 percent in 2015. Women accounted for 44.7 percent of the positions in 2015 compared to 44.6 percent in 2014. Whites occupied 81.2 percent of the positions in 2015, which was a decrease of 0.7 percentage points from 2014. African-Americans represented 16.5 percent, which was an increase of 0.8 percentage points. The 2015 data shows that there was one Latino and one Asian in these positions, which remained unchanged at 1.2 percent in 2015.

For the category of professional administrator position, the total percentage of people of color decreased slightly from 20.2 percent in 2014 to 19.2 percent in 2015. The percent of African-Americans decreased from 15.8 percent in 2014 to 14.2 percent in 2015. The percent of Latinos decreased from 1.4 percent to one percent and Asians increased from 2.7 percent to three percent. The percent of white NCAA professional administrators increased slightly from 79.8 percent in 2014 to 80.8 percent in 2015. The percentage of women in professional administrative positions increased slightly from 53.1 percent in 2014 to 53.3 percent in 2015.

The Institute for Diversity and Ethics in Sport does not include support staff in any of the Racial and Gender Report Cards.

These numbers were recorded September 1, 2015. It should be noted that these statistics were a snapshot in time for the NCAA. As a result, there was some fluctuation that occurs based upon the time of when staff are starting or departing.

The four African-American vice-presidents were:

- Anucha Browne, Vice President of Women's Basketball
- Bernard W. Franklin, Executive Vice President of Education and Community Engagement/CIO
- Donald Remy, Executive Vice President of Law, Policy and Governance/CLO
- Bob Williams, Senior Vice President of Communications

The four women vice presidents were:

- Terri Gronau, Vice President of Division II
- Anucha Browne, Vice President of Women's Basketball
- Kathleen T. McNeely, Senior Vice President of Administration/CFO
- Joni Comstock, Senior Vice President of Championships

Head Coaches*

In 2014-2015, white coaches were still, by far, the most common in all three divisions, holding 87.1 percent, 88.8 percent, and 91.6 percent of positions within men's sports in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively.

African-Americans held 7.9 percent, 4.2 percent, and 5 percent of the men's head coaching positions in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. Comparing those figures to 2013-2014, African-Americans coaching men's teams decreased by 0.3 percentage point in Division I, remained the same in Division II, and increased by 0.2 percentage point in Division III. Latinos held 1.8 percent, 2.7 percent, and 1.5 percent of head coaching positions for men's teams in the respective divisions during 2014-2015. Comparing those figures to 2013-2014, Latinos coaching men's teams decreased by 0.2 percentage point in Division I, remained the same in Division II, and increased by 0.1 percentage point in Division III. Asian/Pacific Islanders held 0.8 percent, 1 percent, and 0.7 percent of the head coaching positions for men's teams in the respective divisions, which stayed the same from 2013-2014. Native-American representation was minimal again. These figures accounted for male and female head coaches of men's teams. The percentage of female head coaches of men's teams was 3.4, 4.0 and 5.2 percent in the respective divisions.

A major area of concern for the Racial and Gender Report Card is the African-American coaching presence in men's Division I basketball. For the 2015 season, 22.3 percent of the men's Division I basketball coaches were African-American (up from 22 percent) and 23.8 percent were coaches of color, which was the same as the 2014 season. The all-time high was 2005-2006, when 25.2 percent of all head coaches were African-American and 26.2 were people of color. The all-time low since College sport became a subject of the RGRC was in the 2011-2012 season, when only 18.6 percent were African-American and 19.5 percent were coaches of color. After much scrutiny was placed on the sport, the 2012-2013 season showed great improvement with an increase of 4.4 percentage points to 23 percent. However, the 2013-14 season saw another lapse.

Only 7.1 percent of Division I baseball coaches were people of color in 2014-2015: Latinos comprised 3.6 percent, Asian/Pacific Islanders 1.4 percent, African-Americans 1.1 percent, and 0.7 percent were classified as two or more races.

Division I athletics tend to have higher levels of diversity than the other divisions. For men's basketball in all divisions combined, 13.4 percent of coaches were African-American in 2014-2015. In all combined divisions for football, African-Americans were 5.1 percent of coaches, which remained the same as the 2013-2014 season. In all three divisions for baseball, African-Americans saw a decrease in representation with 0.5 percent of coaching positions, compared to 0.8 percent of coaching positions in 2014. Latinos increased in Division I baseball, but decreased in Division II and III. Latinos decreased by 0.1 percentage point in football, and increased by 0.1 percentage point in basketball. Whites made up 83.9 percent, 92.3 percent, and 95.5 percent of basketball, football, and baseball head coaching positions, respectively, in all divisions combined during 2014-2015.

African-Americans were so unrepresented as head coaches in Division III that the percentage of women coaching men's teams was actually higher than the percentage of African-Americans coaching men's teams (5.2 percent versus five percent).

On the 43-year anniversary of the passage of Title IX, the percentage of women coaching women's teams remained far from being acceptable in any of the three divisions. In the case of head coaches for women's teams, it should be expected that women would hold at least half of these positions.

Therefore, in that category, 60 percent would earn an A, 52 percent would earn a B, 44 percent would earn a C and 40 percent would earn a D.

In 2014-2015, women held 38.9 percent of head coaching positions at the Division I level for women's sports, while they only held 3.4 percent of the head coaching positions at the Division I level for men's sports. In Division II, women comprised 35.4 percent of the head coaches of women's teams and only 4 percent of the head coaching positions for men's teams. At the Division III level, women made up 43.8 percent of all head coaches for women's teams and only 5.2 percent of the head coaching positions for men's teams.

While it has been common practice for men to coach women's teams, it is rare for women to coach men's teams. This will be the third year that the grades for coaching positions will take this into consideration for the CSGRC.

Various sports are studied on an individual basis for women head coaching positions just as they are for men. This can help to obtain a balanced view of coaching positions throughout college sports. The College Sport Racial and Gender Report Card examines head coaching percentages in both women's basketball, cross-country and indoor/outdoor track programs.

Women head coaches in Division I women's basketball decreased from 59.2 percent in 2013-2014 to 58.3 percent in 2014-2015. Women holding head coaching positions in cross-country, indoor track and outdoor track at the Division I level decreased from 19.5 percent in 2013-2014 to 18.4 percent in 2014-2015. In all other women's sports at the Division I level, women held 44.6 percent of head coaching positions (excluding basketball and cross country/track), a 1.6 percentage point increase from 2013-2014.

Women's head basketball coaching positions held by whites in Division I in 2014-2015 was 83.1 percent, an increase from 2013-2014 when it was 82.5 percent. The percentage of white women coaching in Division I women's basketball decreased from 46.1 percent in 2013-2014 to 45.8 percent in 2014-2015. White men holding the same position in 2014-2015 increased to 37.3 percent from 36.4 percent in 2013-2014. African-American women held 11 percent of head coaching positions within Division I women's basketball in 2014-2015, up from 10.6 percent in 2013-2014. African-American men held 4.1 percent of those positions in 2014-2015, up from 3.7 percent in 2013-2014, totaling 15.1 percent of head coaching positions within Division I women's basketball held by African-Americans, which was up from 14.3 percent in 2013-2014. There were no Native-American head coaches in all of Division I women's college basketball in 2014-2015, which dropped from one total in 2013-2014. Three Latino coaches, two females and one male, combined to make up 0.9 percent of all head coaches in Division I women's basketball in 2014-2015, which was the same as 2013-2014. Much of this data stands in stark contrast to the 47.3 percent of student-athletes playing Division I women's basketball who were African-American and the 65.1 percent of student-athletes playing Division I women's basketball who were people of color in 2014-2015.

The highest percentage of head coaching positions held by people of color in women's college sport was found in the Division I cross country/track category. Whites held 77.7 percent of the head coaching positions in Division I women's cross country/track during 2014-2015, increasing from the previous year's total of 77.4 percent. African-Americans held 17.1 percent in 2014-2015, which was a decrease from the 17.2 percent mark of 2013-2014. Latinos held 1.7 percent in 2014-2015, a decrease from 2.1 percent in 2013-2014. Women held 18.4 percent of head coaching positions in cross country/track at the Division I level in 2014-2015, a decrease from 19.5 percent reported in 2013-2014. African-American women held 5.6 percent in Division I, an increase of 0.1 percentage point from 2013-2014, while white women decreased from 13 percent in 2013-2014 to 12.1 percent in 2014-2015. Men coached 81.6 percent of the women's cross country/track teams at the Division I level in 2014-2015, an increase overall from the 80.5 percent reported in 2013-2014.

Whites also dominated the head coaching positions in women's sports in Division I overall, holding 85.7 percent of head coaching positions, 88.4 percent in Division II, and 91.3 percent in Division III. Compared to 2013-2014, there was a 0.5 percentage point increase in Division I, a 0.1 percentage point decrease in Division II, and remained the same in Division III.

In 2014-2015, African-Americans held 7.3 percent, 4 percent, and 4.4 percent of the women's head coaching positions in the three NCAA divisions, respectively (7.3 percent, 4.1 percent, and 4.2 percent in 2013-2014, respectively). Latinos held 2 percent, 2.7 percent, and 1.6 percent of head coaching positions for women's teams in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively (1.9 percent, 2.7 percent, and 1.4 percent in 2013-2014, respectively). Asian/Pacific Islanders held 1.5, 1.4, and 1.2 percent of head coaching positions for women's teams in the respective divisions, which represented a slight increase in Division I, a slight decrease in Division II and remained the same in Division III from the 2013-2014 percentages. Native-American representation was again minimal with 0.4 percent in Division I, 0.1 percent in Division II, and none in Division III. These figures accounted for male and female head coaches of women's teams.

* It is important to note the NCAA data represents demographics by position, not in sum. There is potential for double counting race or people of color in some instances.

Assistant Coaches*

The assistant coach position is often a stepping-stone to future head coaching positions.

During the 2014-2015 year, African-Americans held 41.8 percent of the Division I assistant coach positions in men's basketball and 27.1 percent of the assistant coach positions in football. Latinos held 0.8 percent of the assistant coach positions in men's basketball and 1.3 percent of assistant coach positions in football. Of all Division I college baseball assistant coaching positions, 1.9 percent were held by African-Americans and 3.6 percent were held by Latinos.

In 2014-2015, whites held 73.6 percent, 75.5 percent, and 84.7 percent of the assistant coach positions on men's teams in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively, compared to 2013-2014 when whites held 73.7 percent, 75.6 percent, and 85.9 percent. African-American assistant coaches for men's teams across the three divisions held 19.1 percent, 13.8 percent, and 8.8 percent of the positions, respectively, compared to 2013-2014 when African-Americans held 18.5 percent, 13.3 percent, and 8.3 percent. Latino assistant coaches for men's teams across the three divisions held two percent, 3.5 percent, and 2.4 percent of the positions, respectively, compared to 2013-2014 when Latino's held 1.8 percent, 4.1 percent, and 1.9 percent. In 2014-2015, Asian/Pacific Islanders held 1.1 percent, 1.2 percent, and 1.1 percent of the total assistant coaching positions, respectively, compared to 2013-2014 when Asian/Pacific Islanders held 1.1 percent, one percent, and 0.9 percent, respectively. Native-Americans held 0.2 percent, 0.3, and 0.1 percent compared to 2013-2014 when they held 0.2 percent, 0.2 percent, and 0.1 percent, respectively.

Among the men's teams in 2014-2015, women held 9.5 percent, 9.2 percent, and 10.8 percent of the assistant coach positions, respectively, in Divisions I, II, and III, compared to 2013-14 when women held 9.6 percent, 9 percent, and 10.5 percent.

Among the women's teams in Divisions I, II, and III during 2014-2015, whites held 75.5 percent, 76.8 percent, and 86.4 percent of the assistant coach positions in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively, compared to 76.1 percent, 77.1 percent, and 87.4 percent in 2013-2014. African-Americans held 14.4 percent, 10.3 percent, and 6.8 percent of the women's assistant coach positions in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. Latinos held 2.5 percent, 4.2 percent, and 1.9 percent of the assistant coach positions within women's sports in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. Asian/Pacific Islanders held 1.7 percent, 2.1 percent, and 1.3 percent, respectively. In 2014-2015, Native-Americans held 0.2 percent, 0.3 percent, and 0.1 percent of assistant coach positions within women's sports in the three divisions, respectively.

The percentage of women assistant coaches in women's sports in Division I increased from 47 in 2013-2014 to 48 percent in 2014-2015, in Division II it increased from 48.5 percent to 49 percent, and in Division III the percentage remained the same at 51.2 percent.

College Athletics Directors

In Division I in 2014-2015 excluding the HBCUs, whites held 87.5 percent of the athletics director positions, which decreased slightly from the 87.7 percent in 2013-2014. African-Americans held 8.6 percent of the athletics director positions in 2014-2015, which increased from eight percent in 2013-2014. Latinos held 2.4 percent of the positions, which decreased slightly from 2.8 percent in 2013-2014. Native-Americans held 0.3 percent in 2014-2015, which did not change from 2013-2014. Asian/Pacific Islander athletics directors held 0.9 percent of the positions, which did not change from 2013-2014.

Women remained seriously underrepresented in the athletic director position this year.

Women ADs in Division I decreased from 9.6 percent to 8.9 percent in 2014-2015. Of that 8.9 percent, white women made up 7.6 percent, while Latinas represented 0.6 percent, Asian/Pacific Islanders represent 0.3 percent, and African-Americans represented 0.3 percent of the athletics director positions within Division I. There were no female athletics directors reported in 2014-2015 who were Native American, two or more races, or those classified as "other."

For a list of the 12 African-Americans, three Latinos, one Asian, one Native-American, and the nine white women (seven percent) who were athletics directors of an FBS school, see page 11 and 12 of this report. Of the 128 ADs who oversee FBS football programs, there were 111 (86.7 percent) whites. The number of people of color within the athletics director positions at the FBS level decreased by four, to 17 (13.3 percent) in 2014-15, from 21 (16.8 percent) in 2013-14.

In Division II, excluding the HBCUs, whites held 91.2 percent of the athletics director jobs in 2014-2015, which was a slight decrease from the 91.5 percent that was reported in 2013-2014. The percentage of white males was 74 percent in 2014-2015, which was a decrease from 75.2 percent in 2013-2014. African-Americans increased from 3.4 percent in 2013-2014 to 4.1 percent in 2014-2015. Asian/Pacific Islanders held 1 percent of the athletics director positions. Latinos held three percent of the athletics director positions, a decrease from the 3.7 percent in 2013-2014.

Women held 18.6 percent of the Division II athletics director positions, which was an increase from 17.7 percent in 2013-2014. White women held 17.2 percent of these positions, which was an increase from 16.3 percent. African-American women remained at one percent in 2014-2015. Asian/Pacific Islander women represented 0.3 percent in 2014-2015, which was the same from 2013-2014. Latina women had no representation for the second consecutive year.

Division III had the worst record for racial diversity in the position of athletics director. African-Americans held 4.1 percent of the athletics director positions, while less than one percent were held by Asian/Pacific Islanders, Latinos, Native-Americans, and those classified as "other." This division does offer women the greatest opportunity at the athletics director level. Women held 29 percent of the athletics director positions, a decrease of 0.4 percentage point from 2013-2014. Among the female athletics directors, white women held 27.3 percent, while African-American women held 1.3 percent and Asian/Pacific Islander women held 0.2 percent. There were no Latina or Native-American athletics directors in 2014-2015 in Division III.

Grade for Division I Athletic Directors:

Race:	B	(12.5 percent)
Gender:	F	(8.9 percent)

See Tables 23, 24, and 25.

College Associate and Assistant Athletic Directors

As in all cases regarding employment in college athletics, the data reported on associate and assistant athletic directors, senior woman administrators and faculty athletics representatives excludes the HBCUs.

This senior administrative category includes both the associate and assistant athletics director positions. These positions are thought of as the pipeline to the athletics director position. People in both of these positions work very closely with the athletics director and they are often training grounds for future athletics directors. In the hierarchy of power, associate athletics directors are above assistant athletics directors. Although these are two separate positions, the demographic make-up of each slot is strikingly similar at the Division I level.

At the associate athletics director (associate AD) position, whites held 87 percent, 90.1 percent, and 94.8 percent of the total in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. In the 2013-2014 report, the percentages for associate athletics director positions were 87.2 percent, 90.1 percent, and 93.6 percent, respectively.

In 2014-2015, women lost ground as associate ADs in all three divisions. In Division I, women occupied 28.3 percent of the positions in 2014-2015, which was a decrease from 29 percent in 2013-2014. In Division II, women saw a larger decrease, as they held 39.2 percent of the associate AD positions in 2014-2015 compared to 40.7 percent in 2013-2014. Division III also decreased as women occupied 46.4 percent of the associate AD positions in 2014-2015 compared to 47.6 percent in 2013-2014.

In 2014-2015, African-Americans held nine percent, 5.8 percent, and 4.1 percent of the associate athletics director positions in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. Latinos held 1.8 percent, two percent, and 0.3 percent of the associate AD positions in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. Asian/Pacific Islanders held 1 percent, 0.6 percent, and zero percent in Divisions I, II, and III while Native-Americans held 0.2 percent in Division I and had no representation in Divisions II and III. Associate ADs classified as "two or more races" held 0.6 percent, 1.2 percent and 0.8 percent in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. "Other" held 0.3 percent in Division I and zero percent in Divisions II and III.

At the assistant athletics director (assistant AD) position in 2014-2015, whites held 86.7 percent, 86.4 percent and 91.5 percent of the positions in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively.

African-Americans held 8.4 percent, 6.7 percent and five percent of the assistant AD positions in 2014-2015 for Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. Latinos held 2.5 percent, 2.8 percent, and 1.6 percent of the assistant AD positions in 2014-2015 for Divisions I, II, and III, respectively, while Asian/Pacific Islanders held one percent, 2.4 percent, and 0.5 percent of the positions at each level. Native-Americans held 0.1 percent, 0.2 percent and 0.4 percent in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. Assistant ADs classified as "two or more races" held 0.3 percent, 0.8 percent, and 0.7 percent in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. "Other" held 0.5 percent, 0.2 percent, and 0.4 percent in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively.

In 2014-2015, women occupied 31.1 percent of the assistant ADs in Division I, 33.5 percent in Division II, and 37.4 percent in Division III.

In Division I the gender breakdown was similar between associate and assistant athletics directors. Associate ADs were 71.7 percent male and 28.3 percent female in Division I and assistant ADs were 68.9 percent male and 31.1 percent female in Division I in 2014-2015. In Division II, associate ADs were 60.8 percent male and 39.2 percent female and assistant ADs were 66.5 percent male and 33.5 percent female in 2014-2015. At the Division III level, the associate AD position was closer to a 50/50 split between males and females, with males holding 53.6 percent and females holding 46.4 percent. For the assistant AD position, it was reported that males held 62.6 percent and females held 37.4 percent in 2014-2015.

Grade for Division I Associate Athletic Directors:

Race:	B	(13 percent)
Gender:	C	(28.3 percent)

See Table 26.

Senior Woman Administrator*

The senior woman administrator (SWA) is a significant title within an athletic department. Women held 98.4 percent, 98.6 percent and 99.3 percent of the SWA jobs at the Division I, II, and III levels, respectively.

White women continued to dominate the position with 83.1 percent, 86.8 percent, and 92.4 percent in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. The racial diversity of the SWA position continued to be very low.

In Division I, African-American women held 9.4 percent, Asian/Pacific Islander women held 1.9 percent, Latinas held 2.2 percent, and Native-American women held 0.3 percent. Women classified as “two or more races” held 1.3 percent, “other” held 0.3 percent and “non-resident alien” held zero percent. Overall, females of color occupied 15.4 percent of the SWA positions in 2014-2015 within Division I.

The senior woman administrator position was less diverse at the Division II level. African-American women held 6.3 percent, Latinas held 2.4 percent, and Asian/Pacific Islanders accounted for 0.7 percent. Women classified as “two or more races” held 1.4 percent and “non-resident alien” held one percent. Females of color overall occupied 11.8 percent of the SWA positions in 2014-2015 within Division II.

In Division III, the senior woman administrator position was the least diverse of all three divisions. African-American women held 4.3 percent, Latina women held 1.6 percent, women classified as “two or more races” held 0.2 percent, and women classified as “other” held 0.2 percent. Females of color occupied an overall 6.9 percent of the SWA positions in 2014-2015 within Division III.

Faculty Athletics Representative

For a description of how a faculty athletics representative (FAR) is selected and represents the university, see page 13 of this report.

For the FAR positions in 2014-2015, whites held 90.6 percent, 92.8 percent, and 94.8 percent at Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. In 2013-2014, the percentages were 91.8 percent, 92.1 percent, and 94.1 percent. The racial diversity of the FAR position continued to be very low. In 2014-2015, African-Americans held 6.4 percent, 2.8 percent, and three percent of the FAR positions at Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. For the 2013-2014 report, African-Americans represented 6.1 percent, 2.4 percent, and 2.6 percent for Divisions I, II, and III. Latinos held 0.6 percent, 2.4 percent, and 0.8 percent of the FAR positions at Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. Asian/Pacific Islanders held 1.2 percent, 1.4 percent, and 0.6 percent in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. Native-Americans held zero percent in Division I and Division II, and 0.2 percent in Division III. FARs classified as “two or more races” held 0.3 percent in Division II while Division I and Division III had no representation. Those classified as “other” held 0.9 percent, zero percent, and 0.6 percent in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively.

Women held 33.3 percent, 28.3 percent, and 33.7 percent of the FAR positions. White women held the greatest percentage of these positions with 30.6 percent, 27.2 percent, and 32.7 percent in Division I, II, and III, respectively. In Division I, African-American women held 1.8 percent, Latinas held 0.3 percent, and Asian/Pacific Islander women held 0.3 percent. In Division II, African-American women held 0.7 percent, Latinas held 0.3 percent, while Asian/Pacific Islander women, Native-American women, those classified as two or more races and those classified as “other” had no representation. In Division III, African-American women held 0.4 percent, Latina women held zero percent, Asian/Pacific Islander women held 0.2 percent, those who were classified as “other” held 0.4 percent, and those classified as two or more races held zero percent.

Grade for Division I Faculty Athletics Representatives:

Race:	C	(9.4 percent)
Gender:	B	(33.3 percent)

See Table 28.

Sports Information Directors

The sports information director (SID) position was one of the least diverse positions in all of college sport when HBCUs were excluded. It was 94.9, 92.2, and 97.1 percent white in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. This was very important because the SID is usually the key decision maker in what and who is publicized among coaches and student-athletes.

The SID position in Division I athletics was 94.9 percent white, 1.9 percent African-American, 1.6 percent Asian/Pacific Islander, 1.2 percent Latino, 0.2 percent other, and 0.2 percent non-resident alien. Division II consisted of 92.2 percent whites, 2.4 percent African-Americans, 2.4 percent Asian/Pacific Islanders, 1 percent Latinos, zero Native-American, 0.7 percent “two or more races,” 0.6 non-resident aliens, and 0.7 percent “other.” Division III was 97.1 percent white, 1.1 percent African-American, 0.2 percent Native-American, 0.9 percent Asian/Pacific Islander, 0.4 percent Latino, 0.2 percent “two or more races,” and zero percent for non-resident aliens and “other.”

Women held 11.6, 8.5, and 13 percent of the SID positions in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively.

Professional Administration

This category included a wide range of job descriptions. At NCAA member institutions, jobs that fit in this category are academic advisor/counselor, compliance coordinator/officer, sports information director and assistant directors, strength coaches, life skills coordinators, and managers for business, equipment, fundraiser/development, facilities, promotions/marketing and tickets. As in all cases regarding employment in college athletics, the data reported in this section excludes the HBCUs. These positions are often starting points from which many people rise to higher level positions within a university or athletic department.

This report shows opportunities for women have increased for Divisions I, yet have decreased for Division II and Division III. The percentage of people of color filling these positions decreased for all three divisions.

Whites continued to dominate the professional administration category by holding 83.4 percent, 86.2 percent, and 91.5 percent of all professional administration positions in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively.

African-Americans held 9.8 percent, 6.6 percent, and 4.9 percent of all professional administration positions in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. Latinos held three percent, 2.9 percent, and 1.6 percent of positions for all professional administration positions in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. Asian/Pacific Islanders held 1.7 percent, 1.6 percent, and 0.8 percent of all professional administration positions in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively. Native-American representation was minimal, 0.4 percent or below in each division.

Women accounted for 34.9 percent, 34.3 percent, and 33.9 percent of all professional administration positions in Divisions I, II, and III, respectively.

Women were especially well represented in the positions of academic advisor/counselor, life skills coordinator, business manager, and compliance coordinator/officer. In the academic advisor/counselor position, women held 62.3 percent of the positions at Division I institutions. Within the life skills coordinator position, women held 71.3 percent of the positions at Division I institutions. In the business manager position, women held 58.1 percent of the positions at Division I institutions. The compliance coordinator/officer also had a strong representation of women at the Division I level holding 50 percent of the positions.

Grade for Division I Professional Administrators:

Race:	B	(16.6 percent)
Gender:	B+	(34.9 percent)

See Tables 29 and 30.

NCAA Diversity Initiatives

College Sport had outstanding diversity initiatives, which can be found in Appendix II.

NCAA Grade for Diversity Initiatives: A

HOW GRADES ARE CALCULATED

The 2015 College Racial and Gender Report Card data showed that college athletics departments' hiring practices do not nearly reflect the number of student-athletes of color competing on their teams. However, to give it perspective for sports fans, The Institute issues the grades in relation to overall patterns in society. Federal affirmative action policies state the workplace should reflect the percentage of the people in the racial group in the population. Thus, with approximately 24 percent of the population being people of color, an A was achieved if 24 percent of the positions were held by people of color, B if 12 percent of the positions were held by people of color, C if it had nine percent, a D if it was at least six percent and F for anything below six percent.

For issues of gender, an A would be earned if 40 percent of the employees were women, B for 32 percent, C for 27 percent, D for 22 percent and F for anything below 22 percent. The 40 percent is also taken from the federal affirmative action standards. However, in the case of women's head and assistant coaches of women's teams, it should be expected as a minimum that women hold at least half of the positions. Thus in that category, 60 percent earned an A, 52 percent would earn a B, 44 percent earned a C and 40 percent would earn a D. In the case of women as student-athletes, 50 percent earned an A, 45 percent a B, and 40 percent a C. The Institute once again acknowledges that even those sports where grades are low generally have better records on race and gender than society as a whole.

METHODOLOGY

All data was collected by a research team at The Institute for Diversity and Ethics in Sport at the University of Central Florida's DeVos School of Sport Business Management.

Baseline data was gathered from the NCAA. The data was placed in spreadsheets with each position broken down by race and gender. The Institute's research team also gathered data from the FBS schools for presidents, athletics directors, football coaches and faculty athletics representatives, as well as researching the diversity of each conference. It is important to note the categories of "Asian" and "Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander" were combined in this report under the category "Asian/Pacific Islander."

The findings were compared to data from previous years. After evaluating the data, the report text was drafted and compared changes to statistics from previous years. The report draft was then sent to the NCAA Headquarters to be reviewed for accuracy. In addition, updates were requested for personnel changes that had occurred. The NCAA was very supportive with several changes that helped clarify the materials.

The report covers both the 2013-2014 and 2014-2015 academic years depending upon the availability of data for each position. Listings of presidents, athletics directors, conference commissioners and associate commissioners in Football Bowl Subdivision (formerly known as Division IA) were updated as of October 2014, while the names and win-loss records of head football coaches were updated as of December 2014 in order to reflect the latest off-season coaching changes.

ABOUT THE RACIAL AND GENDER REPORT CARD...

This is the 23rd issue of the Racial and Gender Report Card (RGRC), which is the definitive assessment of hiring practices of women and people of color in most of the leading professional and amateur sports and sporting organizations in the United States. The report considers the composition – assessed by racial and gender makeup – of players, coaches and front office/athletic department employees in our country's leading sports organizations, including the National Basketball Association (NBA), the National Football League (NFL), Major League Baseball (MLB), Major League Soccer (MLS) and the Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA), as well as in collegiate athletics departments.

The Racial and Gender Report Card is published by The Institute for Diversity and Ethics in Sport, which is part of the College of Business Administration at the University of Central Florida (UCF) in Orlando. Dr. Richard Lapchick has authored all reports, first at Northeastern University and now at UCF. (Until 1998, the report was known as the Racial Report Card.) In addition to Lapchick, DaWon Baker contributed greatly to the completion of this year's College Racial and Gender Report Card.

The Institute for Diversity and Ethics in Sport (TIDES)

The Institute for Diversity and Ethics in Sport ("TIDES" or the "Institute") serves as a comprehensive resource for issues related to gender and race in amateur, collegiate and professional sport. The Institute researches and publishes a variety of studies, including annual studies of student-athlete graduation rates and racial attitudes in sport as well as the internationally recognized Racial and Gender Report Card, an assessment of hiring practices in professional and college sport. The Institute also monitors some of the critical ethical issues in college and professional sport, including the potential for exploitation of student-athletes, gambling, performance-enhancing drugs and violence in sport.

The Institute's founder and director is Dr. Richard Lapchick, a scholar, author and internationally recognized human rights activist and pioneer for racial equality who is acknowledged as an expert on sports issues. Described as "the racial conscience of sport," Lapchick is Chair of the DeVos Sport Business Management Program in the College of Business Administration at UCF, where The Institute is located. In addition, Lapchick serves as President and CEO of the National Consortium for Academics and Sports (NCAS), a group of more than 280 colleges and universities that helps student-athletes complete their college degrees while serving their communities on issues such as diversity, conflict resolution and men's violence against women.

DeVos Sport Business Management Program

College of Business Administration, University of Central Florida

The DeVos Sport Business Management Program is a landmark program focusing on business skills necessary for graduates to conduct successful careers in the rapidly changing and dynamic sports industry, while also emphasizing diversity, community service and social issues in sport. It offers a dual-degree option, allowing students to earn a Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree in addition to the Master of Sport Business Management (MSBM) degree. The program was funded by a gift from the Richard and Helen DeVos Foundation and RDV Sports, with matching funds from the State of Florida.

APPENDIX II

NCAA INCLUSION INITIATIVES

The NCAA has a long history of supporting fair representation in its governance system for diverse administrators, coaches, faculty, and student-athletes. The Association has also committed significant resources to educational programming, the professional development of women and minorities, as well as postgraduate scholarship support for former student-athletes pursuing careers in athletics.

The NCAA has restructured and refocused its diversity and inclusion effort under the leadership of President Mark Emmert. While maintaining a commitment to education and development, priorities of the inclusion effort have shifted to include strategies to develop a culture that recognizes and values diversity as a means to organizational excellence and to providing better service to the ever-more-diverse and complex higher education community and our student athletes. The Inclusion Initiative at the NCAA emphasizes that an inclusive culture is the best approach to achieving diversity. It represents a shift from embracing diversity as a metric to encouraging inclusion as a value in leadership and decision-making processes.

The NCAA Executive Committee in 2010 adopted a framework for inclusion to guide the Association's efforts:

"As a core value, the NCAA believes in and is committed to diversity, inclusion and gender equity among its student-athletes, coaches and administrators. We seek to establish and maintain an inclusive culture that fosters equitable participation for student-athletes and career opportunities for coaches and administrators from diverse backgrounds. Diversity and inclusion improve the learning environment for all student-athletes and enhance excellence within the Association.

The Office of Inclusion will provide or enable programming and education, which sustains foundations of a diverse and inclusive culture across dimensions of diversity including, but not limited to age, race, sex, class, creed, educational background, disability, gender expression, geographical location, income, marital status, parental status, sexual orientation and work experiences."

In addition to the longstanding focus on its commitment to nurturing and encouraging diversity and inclusion through programmatic and education efforts, the NCAA is furthering their focus to impact the following key areas:

1. Increased engagement of university presidential leadership
2. Increased partnership and dialogue with affiliate organizations that support inclusive efforts in higher education
3. Exploration of policy initiatives that advance an inclusive culture in intercollegiate athletics
4. A national office system that can model an inclusive business environment.

Below are summaries highlighting the NCAA's continued commitment to diversity and inclusion:

Association-Wide Committees

National Student-Athlete Advisory Committees

The mission of the NCAA National Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by promoting opportunity, protecting student-athlete welfare, and fostering a positive student-athlete image. The national SAACs are committees made up of student-athletes assembled to provide insight on the student-athlete experience. Additionally, SAAC offers input on the rules, regulations, and policies that affect student-athletes' lives on NCAA member institution campuses.

NCAA Committee on Women's Athletics (CWA) has a mission to provide leadership and assistance to the association in its efforts to provide equitable opportunities, fair treatment and respect for all women in all aspects of intercollegiate athletics. The committee seeks to expand and promote opportunities for female student-athletes, administrators, and coaches. The committee promotes governance, administration, and conduct of intercollegiate athletics at the institutional, conference, and national levels that are inclusive, fair, and accessible to women.

NCAA Minority Opportunities and Interests Committee (MOIC) was formed by the Association in January 1991 to review issues related to the interests of ethnic minority student-athletes, NCAA minority programs and NCAA policies that affect ethnic minorities. These issues focus on the education and welfare of minority student-athletes, as well as the enhancement of opportunities for ethnic minorities in coaching, athletics administration, officiating and the NCAA governance structure.

Committee on Women's Athletics and Minority Opportunities and Interests Committee:

Administrative Committee is comprised of members from the NCAA Minority Opportunities and Interests Committee and the Committee on Women's Athletics committees. Along with the chairs/vice chairs of the MOIC and CWA, the committee includes presidents and chancellors from the NCAA membership and provides oversight and strategic direction for the MOIC and CWA.

Joint CWA/MOIC Subcommittee for Women of Color Issues addresses issues that are especially pertinent and unique to the advancement of minority women within the membership.

Joint CWA/MOIC Subcommittee for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender (LGBT) Issues focuses on issues related to the LGBT community.

Joint CWA/MOIC Subcommittee for Disabilities focuses on issues related to student-athletes with disabilities.

Education and Training

Life Skills Symposium

The Life Skills Symposium is designed to provide relevant, effective and practical training and professional development opportunities to enhance the ability of professionals who serve student-athletes in the areas of life skills and student-athlete development. The symposium is open to professionals and graduate assistants at NCAA member institutions and conference offices who support student-athletes in any capacity. The event will provide the opportunity for professionals to become educated on student-athlete well-being issues, receive student-athlete development training and develop a toolkit that will better equip them to serve the continually changing needs of student-athletes.

Emerging Leaders Seminar

The Emerging Leaders Seminar provides transitional educational programming and an overview of the collegiate athletics structure to interns and graduate assistants from NCAA member institutions, conference offices and affiliate organizations. Additionally, this seminar provides individuals with the opportunity to network with industry experts and their peer group.

NCAA Inclusion Forum

The NCAA Inclusion Forum brings together intercollegiate athletics leaders passionate about improving the educational and professional environment for student-athletes, coaches and staff. Sessions engage on a broad range of topics related to policy, research and best practices for racial and ethnic minorities, women, international student-athletes, LGBTQ and disability-access to sport.

Professional Development

Champion Forum

The Champion Forum provides a unique yearlong opportunity for current NCAA intercollegiate football coaches to learn a realistic view of the role of and preparation it takes to become a head football coach in the college game. Simulating the various formats of the interview process serve as core curriculum, along with exposure to key decisions makers (current and former head coaches, university presidents, conference executives, directors of athletics, search firms) in the industry and gaining a better understanding of the role of search firms in the process.

NCAA 30 Under 30 Coaches Leadership Institute (AFCA)

The NCAA 30 Under 30 Coaches Leadership Institute is designed for those individuals new to coaching football at an NCAA institution and not more than three years past receiving an undergraduate degree. During the three-day program held in conjunction with the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Convention, participants will attend exclusive academy workshops, engage in a variety of convention sessions and network with key individuals in the industry. During AFCA, participants will learn the aspects of securing, managing and excelling as a coach: the intersection of personal values with coaching opportunities, impact of behavioral styles, examination of coaching as a viable profession and realistic view of entry-level football coach.

Leadership Institute

Leadership Institute participants – ethnic minority males and females – will explore the collegiate athletics community in its entirety as they strategically map and plan their careers. The weeklong institute will provide tailored programming to diversify their network, enhance their professional skills, gain exposure to key stakeholders within college administration and receive an in-depth view of the NCAA governance structure.

Career in Sports Forum

The NCAA Career in Sports Forum (CSF) is an annual educational forum hosted that brings together 200 selected student-athletes for four days to learn and explore potential careers in sports, with the primary focus on intercollegiate athletics. The CSF is designed to assist student-athletes in charting their career paths, to give them the opportunity to network and to learn from current athletics professionals.

NCAA and NFL Coaches Academy

The NCAA and NFL Coaches Academy is an opportunity for current, full-time intercollegiate football coaches at NCAA member institutions and current (and former) NFL athletes to expand their knowledge and insight into the world of intercollegiate football coaching. During the three-day academy, the NCAA and the NFL educate and train selected participants in a variety of areas that encourage effective coaching and improve student-athlete well being at both the intercollegiate and professional levels. Topical education and conversation during the academy may include: effective communication with campus and community constituents; the importance of building culture focused on the overall success of the student-athletes both on and off the field; budget management of a football program; coaching strategies and philosophies.

NCAA and NFL Summit

The NCAA and NFL Summit is a joint partnership between the NCAA and the NFL in an effort to educate life skills administrators on the synergies that exist between player development directors and life skills coordinators, NFL and NCAA support, and the personal and professional development needs of student-athletes.

NCAA/NACWAA Institute for Athletics Executives

The Executive Institute offers a concentrated four-day program (by invitation only) designed to enhance the careers of senior ranking women in athletics administration at the NCAA Divisions I, II, and III level. The curriculum focuses on leadership and communication strategies, contract negotiations, legal issues, fundraising, searches and hiring processes, and other critical issues surrounding athletics administration.

NCAA/NACWAA Leadership Enhancement Institute

The Leadership Enhancement program provides advanced educational opportunities and professional development for NCAA/NACWAA Academy graduates who are looking for more in-depth training in designated areas of athletics administration. Topics include management/leadership styles, budget/finance/fundraising strategies, career enhancement skills for the future, and other contemporary issues. The format includes practical applications, case studies and interactive activities. In addition, there are opportunities for “hot topic” forums with the faculty.

NCAA Postgraduate Internship Program

The NCAA Postgraduate Internship Program is a unique cohort model and professional development focus that provides on-the-job learning experiences annually for 25 college graduates who express an interest in pursuing a career in intercollegiate athletics administration. A year-long, paid program based at the national office in Indianapolis, the NCAA postgraduate internship exposes participants to the inner workings of college sports from the national perspective, one they eventually share as full-time athletics administrators on campuses and conference offices. Internship positions are offered in the following areas: academic and membership affairs/student-athlete reinstatement; administrative services; championships and alliances; communications; education and community engagement initiatives; the NCAA Eligibility Center; enforcement; governance; inclusion and leadership development.

Pathway Program

The Pathway Program is designed to elevate those currently in senior-level positions within athletics administration to the next step as a director of athletics. This program is an intensive, experiential learning opportunity for selected participants equally representing NCAA Divisions I, II and III. This year long program provides an in-depth look into the NCAA governance structure, exposes participants to key stakeholders from member institutions and the NCAA, and matches participants up with a president and director of athletics who will provide guidance and mentorship.

Student-Athlete Leadership Forum

The NCAA Student-Athlete Leadership Forum engages a diverse and dynamic representation of student-athletes, coaches, faculty and administrators with pertinent and customized programming. Student-athletes return to campus with invaluable leadership skills, the experience of exploring the relationship between personal values, core beliefs and behavioral styles, and a thorough understanding of the NCAA as a whole, the different divisional perspectives and the valuable role of Student-Athlete Advisory Committees \(SAAC\).

NCAA and NACWAA Women's Leadership Symposium

The NCAA and NACWAA Women's Leadership Symposium (WLS) is developed for women aspiring to, or just beginning a career, in intercollegiate athletics. This program, a strategic collaboration between the NCAA and the National Association of College Women Athletics Administrators (NACWAA), aims to enrich participants' skills, expand their professional network and promote the recruitment and retention of women working within intercollegiate athletics administration. Participants gain knowledge from a variety of workshops and interactive discussion sessions during the three-day program. A variety of cutting-edge topics are explored and can include: personal branding, leadership, Title IX, diversity education, as well as career advancement and mapping. They will also network with peers, NCAA and NACWAA staff and other key individuals in the sports industry.

Board of Governors Ad Hoc Committee to Promote Cultural Diversity and Equity

In January 2016, the NCAA Board of Governors released a resolution reaffirming the Association's commitment to cultural diversity and equity. This committee consists of presidents, chancellors, and directors of athletics from all three divisions, and who serve on various leadership groups within NCAA governance structure. The ad hoc committee's work focuses on recommending initiatives and programming to support the increase of career entry and advancement for ethnic minorities and women in positions of athletics leadership.

Athletic Department Diversity & Inclusion Review

Upon the request of a member institution, the NCAA Office of Inclusion will visit a member school's campus for the purpose of gaining understanding and insight into the athletics department culture as it relates to diversity and inclusion. Using a consultative approach, the objective is for the NCAA team to add value to diversity and inclusion related initiatives by providing suggestions and recommendations following an assessment of an institution's and athletics department's current practices, efforts, and culture.

HBCU/LGBTQ Pilot Program

This program provides leaders in athletics departments at historically black colleges and universities (HBCU) with tools and resources to support student-athletes and athletics department staff on LGBTQ issues. With a focus on creating an environment for open dialogue and providing education, the program's main goal is to achieve more inclusive environments in which all persons can be their true and best selves.

Gender Equity Task Force

In October 2014, the NCAA's executive committee approved the creation of the NCAA Gender Equity Task Force to engage the membership, student-athletes, the governance structure, and affiliate organizations in identifying gender equity strategies for goals such as increasing and supporting female student-athlete participation and women in leadership roles in intercollegiate athletics. The Task Force works closely with NCAA association-wide membership committees like the Committee on Women's Athletics and reports regularly to the NCAA's Board of Governors and as well as the Divisions I, II, and III governance leadership.

Scholarships and Grants

Division II Coaching Enhancement Grant

This Division II Coaching Enhancement Grant was created to address the issues of access, recruitment, selection and long-term success of women, ethnic minorities and other individuals in Division II who seek to overcome hiring barriers by providing grant funding for the creation of assistant coaching positions within the division. The grant each year provides $16,000 to create a new assistant coach position. The school is required to contribute an additional $8,000 annually in funding, as well as $1,200 for professional development. All applications are reviewed and confirmed by a selection committee of non-NCAA staff. The selection process takes place every two years.

Division III Ethnic Minority and Women's Internship Grant Program

The Division III Ethnic Minority and Women's Internship Grant Program (Division III Internship) was founded to assist in enhancing diversity and inclusion within Division III athletics administrative staffs. The Internship Grant is a $23,100 grant designated for a Division III institution to hire a 10-month full-time individual, give that person the opportunity for learning in administration and coaching, with NCAA member institutions or conference offices providing administrative supervision and mentorship throughout the program. Assistant coaching responsibilities are allowed, including strength and conditioning, but the percentage of time focused on assistant coaching should be realistic but be no more than 50 percent of the outlined job responsibilities.

Division II Strategic Alliance Matching Grant Enhancement Program

The Division II Strategic Alliance Matching Grant Enhancement Program (Division II SAMG) provides funding for the creation of new, or the enhancement of, current full-time, senior-level administrative positions at Division II institutions and conference office to encourage access, recruitment, selection and long-term success of ethnic minorities and women. The grant will fund 75 percent of the grant request in the first year, 50 percent in the second year and 25 percent in the third year.

Division III Strategic Alliance Matching Grant

The Division III Strategic Alliance Matching Grant (Division III SAMG) is a five-year grant program that provides funding for mid- to senior-level administrative positions at Division III institutions and conference offices to encourage access, recruitment, selection and the long-term success of ethnic minorities and women. The grant will fund 75 percent of the grant request in the first year, 50 percent in the second year and 25 percent in the third year. Assistant coaching responsibilities are allowed, including strength and conditioning, but proposals limiting coaching responsibilities have historically been selected over those that include such responsibilities.
